

ANALYSIS

This ordinance amends Title 10 – Animals of the Los Angeles County Code, to amend, add and delete definitions, add a field enforcement fee, change the licensing delinquency charge and clarify policies relating to animals.

Definitions relating to animal facilities, kennels and the breeding and boarding of animals were amended, added and deleted in view of the change of terms used in the fee schedule and also to clarify the meaning of some terms.

Other amendments clarify existing policies relating to the number of dogs and cats permitted per household, licensing and other requirements relating to hobby breeders, and when individual licenses are required for dogs and cats kept as pets at an animal facility.

A field enforcement fee was added to reflect the added cost of using field personnel to enforce the licensing ordinance. The licensing delinquency charge was amended to equal the cost of the license, which will result in the charge remaining the same $20 charge for the majority of animal owners in the County whose cats and dogs are spayed or neutered, and will reduce the delinquency charge to $7.50 for seniors. The increase in the delinquency charge for licenses which cost in excess of $20 will provide incentives to have cats and dogs spayed and neutered, encourage owners to timely apply for licenses, account for lost revenue from owners who fail to license their pets and facilities, and will more accurately reflect additional licensing enforcement costs when pets and facilities remain unlicensed.
